

Employment Contract

Employee Hiring Process - sample employment document

Parties

This agreement is made between the company and the selected employee for the position of Junior Software Developer.

Employment Terms

The employment starts on 2026-07-01. The employee will work full-time according to company working hours and internal policies.

Responsibilities

The employee will participate in software development, documentation, testing, and team meetings.

Confidentiality

The employee agrees to protect company information, project documentation, and client data.

| Contract item | Description               |
|---------------|---------------------------|
| Position      | Junior Software Developer |
| Start date    | 2026-07-01                |
| Department    | Software Development      |